Course Attendance Policy:
This course contains many lectures and impromptu discussion. If you miss a class it is your responsibility to acquire the information given in lecture and demonstration from another student. The instructor will not deliver the lecture or demonstration twice. After missing three classes each additional class will be a reduction of one letter grade from your final grade for each class missed. Attendance will be taken at each class period. Starting January 17 the seat you are sitting in will be your seat for the entire semester. Being tardy three times will be counted as one missed class period. It is the students’ responsibility to notify the instructor after class that they were tardy.

Course Policy on Acts of Academic Dishonesty:
Please review Chapter 7 Student Conduct Code in the SIU Undergraduate Catalog pages 448 to 458.

Course Policy on Missing an Exam:
If for any reason you must miss an exam a written explanation must be presented before the exam date. In case of illness a written explanation from the Doctor or Health service is required.

Course Policy on Late Work:
All homework and projects must be turned in to receive a final grade. Work that is late will be counted off one letter grade per each day of the week.
